Message From the East

Brethren,
I just wanted to say thanks to the lodge for electing me as worshipful master this year, it is a great honor that I will take seriously and put forth every effort to ensure Lafayette Lodge #91 has an amazing year.

I just want give a very special thanks to Mike Roberts for being master this year, he had a very difficult year as his Grandfather and Mother passed away, BUT he persevered and still had a great year. We were able to make honor lodge for 6th year in a row and he spearheaded the temple and we finally got out beautiful floor installed. Thank you to Randy and every one else who worked really hard to install the floor. You guys did an amazing job.

My vision for this year has three parts; the first part is all about communication. I want to reach out to current members and get to know them. I hope to visit all members of our lodge that still reside in Colorado and get to know them. The second part is about tradition and reestablishing our tradition of quality work and superior degree work. It is something I will encourage everyone to study their work and do a great job during the ritual work. The third part is getting involved with out charity roots. We have a great history of helping out brethren and the community through a number of charities and I would love to see us get more involved with some of those charities. I may even put together a charity dinner that benefits our temple board scholarship fund for high school seniors that are have dreams of going to college but cannot afford to.

I would like to invite everyone out the Valentine's Brunch that will be held February 22nd, 2014, which is a Saturday. This event is intended for your wife, sister, and daughter. We will have decorations, pancakes, eggs and other items in the pink and red that the holiday is known for. Please bring your family out the lodge and invite your friends to come out as well, it will be open to everyone. Please RSVP to myself or to Ernie as he is in charge of the event. My phone is 303-359-4654, seemerlin2@gmail.com or Ernie is 303-772-9865 with his email as eshonrock@gmail.com.

I hope to see you after at Grand lodge or at our next regular stated meeting on January 22nd at 7:00. Also, I need people for our 3rd degree, which will be held on February 15th at 9:00. Please let me know what part you would like to do. I will have an email with the cast sent out here shortly.

Have a great day,
Christopher Matthews
