Greetings Brethren,

I trust all of you had a terrific holiday season. Ours was wonderful with all the children and grandchildren about us. Flatirons Commandery No. 7 Knights Templar performed the Christmas Observance this year at Lafayette Lodge and it was a moving and joyous event indeed.

We have on our calendar, several significant events in the near future worth mentioning at this time. WB Wayne Arner will be doing our Masonic Education on Wednesday January 28. As I understand, WB Wayne will be giving us a historical presentation about Lafayette Lodge as well as the other mining Lodges in this vicinity. Grand Lodge Sessions will commence on Thursday January 22-24 at the Pueblo Marriott. Saturday February 7, 2015 we will be doing the Entered Apprentice Degree on one or more candidates beginning with breakfast at 8am and the degree starting promptly at 9am. Get involved, take a part and help make this a memorable event for our new Brothers. We will be doing our annual Sweethearts Social on February 14, 2015 from 1-3pm to honor the Ladies in our lives. Please RSVP to Junior Warden Alan DeGeorge. We are also going to be doing the Fellowcraft Degree at our regular meeting night on Wednesday February 25, 2015 at 7pm beginning after a short bit of business. Brothers Fousini Banau and Drew Schrupp were deemed proficient Entered Apprentices on January 14, 2015.

Wishing all of you well!

The General Grand Chapter has introduced a new award for the Ladies of our Royal Arch Masons. The award was developed by the General Grand High Priest, Emory J. Ferguson, and is available to Royal Arch Masons as a way to show their appreciation for the support and encouragement their Ladies have given them throughout the years. The award consists of a jewel and certificate. The jewel is available to all Royal Arch Masons and can be purchased for the sum of $100.00.

Masonic signer of the Declaration of Independence

Joseph Hewes (January 23, 1730 - November 10, 1779)

Joseph was a native of Princeton, New Jersey, where he was born in 1730. Hewes' parents were members of the Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers. Immediately after their marriage, they moved to New Jersey, which became Joseph Hewes' home state. Hewes attended Princeton but there is no evidence that he actually graduated.^[1] What is known is that he became an apprentice of a merchant and in fact became a very successful merchant. After finishing his apprenticeship he earned himself a good name and a strong reputation, which would serve him well in becoming one of the most famous signers of the Declaration of Independence for North Carolina, along with William Hooper and John Penn. Hewes moved to Edenton, North Carolina at the age of 30 and won over the people of the colony with his charm and honorable businesslike character. Hewes was elected to the North Carolina legislature in 1763, only three years after he moved to the colony. After being re-elected numerous times in the legislature, Hewes was now focused on a new and more ambitious job as a continental congressman.
