Greetings Brethren!

I extend warm greetings to each of you and your families! We have been very busy so far this year. Our Valentines Sweetheart Ice Cream Social was a huge success and was very well attended by our Masonic family. Thanks to all who helped with the planning, preparation and organization. We now have two new Entered Apprentices, Bros. Ryan Knott and Ted Mantanye III. We extend our warmest welcome to our new Brothers. We will be passing two Brothers to the Fellowcraft Degree on Wednesday March 25 beginning at 7pm. Please plan on attending. Our progress towards attaining Honor Lodge this year is progressing very well so far. A hearty thanks to Bro. Alan DeGeorge for keeping track of our progress. I'm sure there is something I'm forgetting but as usual there will be more to follow. Lafayette Lodge will be receiving MWGM Dexter Koons on our first communication in April. April 8 with dinner at Millers Grill in Lafayette at 5:30. MWGM Dexter is bringing his wife so our reception will be open to the public. We will have a practice for receiving the Grand Master on Saturday April 4 at 1pm. Please plan on attending. I realize this is late notice, but we have been struggling to get on the Grand Masters schedule, and it appears this will be our only opportunity.

See You Soon,

Bruce Lawlor

The Badge of Honor

An emblem of innocence and the badge of a mason; more ancient than the Golden Fleece or Roman Eagle, more honorable than the Star and Garter, or any other order that can be conferred upon you at this or any future period, by any King, Prince, Potentate, or any other person, except he be a Mason.

In these few words Freemasonry expresses the honor she pays to this symbol of the Ancient Craft.

The Order of the Golden Fleece was founded by Philip, Duke of Burgundy, in 1429.

The Roman Eagle was Rome's symbol and ensign of power and might a hundred years before Christ.

The Order of the Star was created by John II of France in the middle of the Fourteenth Century.

The Order of the Garter was founded by Edward III of England in 1349 for himself and twenty-five Knights of the Garter. That the Masonic Apron is more ancient than these is a provable fact. In averring that it is more honorable, the premise when worthily worn is understood. The Apron is more honorable than the Star and Garter when all that it teaches is exemplified in the life of the wearer.

Essentially the Masonic Apron is the badge of honorable labor. The right to wear it is given only to tried and tested men.

The innocence of a Mason is his gentleness, chivalrous determination to do no moral evil to any person, man or woman, or babe; his patient forbearance of the crudeness and ignorance of men, his dedication to a spiritual knighthood in behalf of the value and virtues of humanity by which alone man rises above the brutes and the world is carried forward on the upward way. Let its spotless surface be an ever-present reminder of purity of life and rectitude of conduct.
